I know and understand the dedication and commitment that it takes to make and keep Texans safe, to keep families strong, and to keep our law enforcement doing what it does best.

	Answer: The economy is my number 1 priority, followed closely by the border and national security.

	Answer: Common sense. We need to look at the DOGE reports. I will author legislation that requires each Department to make DOGE a part of their annual budget. We must set examples in the US Senate office and ask our own to work to ensure that our offices are in compliance and not wasting funds. It comes down to personal responsibility.

5. What are the most important issues that Republicans need to focus on in order to maintain control of the US Senate in the November 2026 election?

Answer: We should review our successes & remind voters that we are halfway through this presidency and we need to stay focused on pressing forward to allow the government to continue to succeed.
